3. Public Comment & Announcements on non-agenda items.

Jessica announced the resignation of Kat Willits and thanked her for her service.

4. Report from Supervisor Haschak & Public Comment.

Working on the Community Development block grant for almost $1 million. Trying to get a "possum belly" trash hauler capacity for the transfer station. This will be on the May 25 agenda.

5. Discussion, Public Comment, & Possible Action: Assembly Member Jim Wood joins us in discussion about community needs and projects.

Topics discussed that could be beneficial to the Round Valley community were Community Services Districts (special districts for a variety of projects) and designating Hwy. 162 as a scenic highway. Assemblymember Woods also mentioned he would be talking to the new attorney general Rob Bonta regarding enforcement help in dealing with illegal cannabis cultivation.

6. Report from Sheriff Kendall

Matt reported the CHP towed 32 vehicles, numerous arrests and citations, 82 verbal warnings, and 4 DUIs in recent enforcement action.

7. Discussion, Public Comment, & Possible Action: Cannabis Ordinance, Code Enforcement, Opt-out of 10% zones, and SB 59.

ACTION ITEM: Jessica to write a letter from the MAC opposing the ordinance essentially the same as the previous one that was sent.

8. Meeting was adjourned by the Presiding Officer at 8:06 p.m.
